

In the service at the church of god the preacher, give a call for all the sinful people to come forward for prayer.

The jumping crying preacher, who had been very sick with flu for the past week, it seemed that all of the faces look the same. The church choir was singing, crying and jumping

It was a very hot and muggy Sunday night.

The service went on and on and on, the preacher was getting tired, his throat was dry and his head ached.

Then all of a sudden, he look up and saw jumping crying preacher's that did immoral things to babies with the dark evil that was growing Like a weed in his church walking up to him.

However, no tears flowed down his face because after his wife killed herself all of his real feelings have died.
